

The American History Teachers' Collaborative Presents:

Money, Materialism, Monopolies, and Millionaires

A Two-Part Focus Workshop

Saturday, April 17 and Saturday, April 24, 2010

8:00 am - 4:30pm

Urbana Middle School

These two days will consist of a keynote presentation by Dr. James Barrett, discussions on The Industrial Revolution, the rise of American business, The Federal Reserve, and the complex relationship between capitalism and democracy.

A light breakfast and lunch will be provided. Teachers will receive a $300 stipend for attending both days. Urbana teachers can receive sixteen clock hours of Board Credit in lieu of a stipend. Please turn in your complete registration form and $50 registration fee by March 12, 2010.

More information, including registration forms, is available on the American History Teachers' Collaborative website: www.americanhistoryteachers.org. Please contact Katherine Barbour, AHTC Project Director, at kbarbour@usd116.org or 384-3680 with any questions.

The American History Teachers' Collaborative is funded by the U.S. Department of Education through the Teaching American History Grant Program and coordinated by Urbana School District #116.
