

The American History Teachers' Collaborative presents...

An American History Teachers'
Collaborative film series featuring
Chuck Koplinski
Spring 2010

The Great Depression on Film

Thursday, March 4, 2010 • 6:00—9:00 pm • Urbana Middle School

This is a free workshop. There is no registration fee. All teachers will receive dinner and CPDUs, and Urbana teachers may request Board Credit. There are no stipends available for this workshop.

The Great Depression was one of the seminal events of the American 20th century, one that we still feel the repercussions of today. In this one-night seminar, we will look at films made during this time period and afterwards that examine this important era. Among the movies to be examined will be: American Madness, The Great Crash, Gold Diggers of 1933, The Grapes of Wrath, It's a Wonderful Life, Paper Moon and King of the Hill.

To register, please email your name, school, and grade level to Kim Lareau at register@usd116.org by February 8, 2010. If you have any questions, please contact Katherine Barbour at kbarbour@usd116.org or Alexis Jones at ajones@usd116.org.

Priority given to U.S. or Illinois history teachers. The American History Teachers' Collaborative is funded by the U.S. Department of Education through the Teaching American History Grant Program and coordinated by Urbana School District #116. For more information, visit the project homepage at www.americanhistoryteachers.org