

The American History Teachers' Collaborative presents...

An American History Teachers'
Collaborative film event featuring
Chuck Koplinski
Summer 2010

Memphis in Film

Friday, June 18th, 2010 • 12:30—4:30 pm • Urbana Middle School

This is a free workshop. There is no registration fee. All teachers will receive lunch and CPDUs, and Urbana teachers may request Board Credit. There are no stipends available for this workshop.

Memphis is a city rich in history and is one of the more unique American metropolitan areas. As such, many significant events that have taken place there have been immortalized on film while the city itself has served as a background for other movies, due to its unique style. This session will focus on certain films such as The Firm, Great Balls of Fire, Walk the Line as well as certain documentaries that capture Memphis' mystique.

To register, please email your name, school, and grade level to Kim Lareau at register@usd116.org by May 14, 2010. If you have any questions, please contact Katherine Barbour at kbarbour@usd116.org or Alexis Jones at ajones@usd116.org.

Priority given to U.S. or Illinois history teachers. The American History Teachers' Collaborative is funded by the U.S. Department of Education through the Teaching American History Grant Program and coordinated by Urbana School District #116.
