

Listening to Historical Fiction Worksheet Name _____

You will be listening to two children's historical fiction stories about Lincoln. Both were written in the early 1900's. As you listen to or read these stories together, fill in the first two columns of the fact/opinion charts for each book below.

After you have listened to the whole book, fill out column 3. After you complete research (later in this unit) you will go back and fill out column 4.

First book: He Knew Lincoln, by Ida M. Tarbell. McClure, Phillips & Co. 1907. (Both Chic and Virginia Sale based sketches on this book).

1. FACTS	2. Why do you think this is a fact/opinion?	3. How could you find out if you are right?	4. Are you? Prove it.
a.
b.
c.
d.
1. OPINIONS
a.
b.
c.
d.

C. Adrian, June 2006

Second Book: The Perfect Tribute by Mary Raymond Shipman Andrews. Charles Scribner's Sons, 1908. (Chic played Lincoln in the short film version of this book)

1. FACTS	2. Why do you think this is a fact/opinion?	3. How could you find out if you are right?	4. Are you? Prove it.
a.
b.
c.
d.
1. OPINIONS
a.
b.
c.
d.

Which book was closer to the factual Lincoln? Why do you think so?

Answer: