

Analyzing Segregation
Through Maps

Name: _____

As you look at the maps about segregation in the United States, write down your observations below. Remember to look at all the maps before you write your observations down.

What facts given by the map did you expect you would find?

What facts provided by the maps were unexpected? Why?

What areas of the country do you think will fight school integration? Why?