

School Desegregation
Photo Analysis

Name: _____

Examine the 5 photos below and complete the chart.

Picture	List what you see in this picture	Choose 1 person to focus on. Describe and tell what you think that person is thinking.	Make a text to text, text to self or text to world connection to this picture.	What might this picture tell us about desegregation in the United States?
University of Alabama Students burn desegregation literature
Clinton, Tennessee, school integration conflict, 1956
School Dilemma-- Youths taunt Dorothy Geraldine Counts in Charlotte, North Carolina
U.S. Troops escort African American students from Central High School, Little Rock, Arkansas
The Birmingham News

(Over)

Did you expect to see pictures like this? Why or why not?

Do you think that these pictures are pretty typical of what the desegregation of U.S. schools looked like? Do you think all parts of the country had similar experiences? Explain your thoughts in a thoughtful paragraph:

In what ways is the Constitution being used or abused in these photos?