The Constitution and Civil Rights

Constitutional Amendment 15

Section 1. The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Section 2. The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation

Section 1.

Do you have a rule in your classroom about whether blond kids or brunette kids can spend more time at the drinking fountain?

Why not?

So why do you think we have a Constitutional Amendment saying that people of all color have the right to vote?
