What was school like for Mr. Gregory?

Is your school life like his?

Why do you think it has changed?

My ideas	More ideas

Do you think it would have changed without laws (constitutional amendments) being passed? Why or why not?

Mr. Francis's fellow students didn't realize he was going to be discriminated against when they went for dinner.

Would it be possible to discriminate without meaning to?

Now think about your neighborhood. How integrated is it?

How about your school? How many teachers are African Americans?

Let's look at our government. About what percentage of the Congress do you think is African American?
