The Women! . . . Lord bless 'em!

Shoulder to shoulder with the men! . . . Isn't that a wonderful spirit? . . . You just know the job will be done now! . . . Because when the women go into action they go in with that indomitable will to win! . . . They have that intuitive force of their sex! . . . they have that deeper moral courage! . . . they have that delicacy of balance! . . . they have that motherly instinct of protection! . . . of love! . . . of tenderness! . . . They have that fine co-ordination of soul spirit with man that has made possible the progress of the world!

Wrapped up in the success of every man is the influence of a woman! . . . the urgings of a mother's love and pride! . . . the righteous upbringing of her children! . . . her home-making efforts! . . . her disposition to be cheerful! . . . to manage the family income! . . . to conciliate the many problems of marital happiness! . . . to bear the will! . . . and yield the stroke of man! . . . to be his companion! . . . his helpmate!

The lot of woman has been to be more or less in the shadow! . . . in the background of recognition! . . . to go on unsung of the praises of her influence! . . . of her work! . . . of her talents! . . . of her accomplishments! . . . of her sacrifices! . . . But man's vassalage of her has been broken! . . . the progress of civilization has unshackled her! . . . She is coming into equal rights with man! . . . to come shoulder to shoulder with him! . . . in all equality! . . . to perform ambitions! . . . to strive at the tasks! . . . to share in the accomplishments! . . . to partake of the Glory! . . . all this besides her Heavenly endowed function of Motherhood!

Glory be to the Women! . . . In war! . . . In peace! . . . In strife! . . . In turmoil! . . . In tranquility! . . . In all the vicissitudes of life! . . . they are with us!

The Women! . . . Lord bless 'em!
