

Group Evaluation – Civil War Biographical Sketch

Names of group members _____

| Category | 4 | 3 | 2 | 1 |
|------------------------|---|--|--|--|
| Organization | Information is very organized with well-constructed paragraphs. | Information lacks a bit of organization but paragraphs are well constructed | Information is organized, but paragraphs are not well-constructed. | The information appears to be disorganized |
| Use of Information | Information clearly relates to the subject. It includes detail and interesting facts. | Information clearly relates to the subject. There are little details. | Information is not just about the subject. There are no details. | Information does not relate to the subject. |
| Mechanics | No grammatical, spelling or punctuation errors. | Almost no grammatical, spelling or punctuation errors. | A few grammatical, spelling or punctuation errors | Many grammatical, spelling or punctuation errors. |
| Paragraph Construction | All paragraphs include introductory sentence, explanation or details and concluding sentence. | Most paragraphs include introductory sentence, explanation or details, and concluding sentence. | Paragraphs included related information but were typically not constructed well. | Paragraphing was not clear and sentenced were not typically related within the paragraphs. |
| First Draft | Detailed draft is neatly presented and includes all required information | Draft includes all required information and is legible | Draft includes most required information and is legible. | Draft is missing required information and is difficult to read. |
| Cooperation | Each person in their group knew what their job was and could tell the teacher what they were responsible for and their jobs were well done. | Each person in the group knew what their job was, but some had a hard time retelling it to the teacher. Their jobs were completed well | Each team member was not sure of their job and everyone worked on everything. | No one knew what they were doing. No one did anything. |

Score for entire team _____