

Abraham Lincoln had a wife – Mary Todd and four boys. Robert, Eddie, Willie and Tad. Eddie died when he was three, three years before Willie was born and last was Thomas – named after Abraham’s father. They called him Tad. Robert was 18 when Abraham was elected to the presidency and a Student at Harvard. Therefore, the only two sons who lived in the white house were Willie and Tad. Abe was a lenient father and the boys were very mischievous in the White House. Once they let a cart into the hallways of the white house being driven by a goat! What would your father say about that? Print a picture that you find off of the internet or give me a book that you find a picture in for me to copy for you and past on this page of Abraham Lincoln and his family and explain why you like that photo or picture.
