

The forefathers of our country set up some guidelines that they thought would be very important for a President of our country to have. Mark the answers you think are true and false on this quiz. We will go over it after I take attendance.

1. You must know how to read in order to be president. T F
2. The President must obey the law, just like everyone else. T F
3. The President must have served in a branch of the military. T F
4. A person can only be elected as President two times. T F
5. The President must be a lawyer. T F
6. The President must earn more money than any other person in the country must. T F
7. The President must be a man. T F
8. The President must be married. T F
9. The President must be 35 years old. T F
10. The President must have been born in the United States. T F

Answers – F, T, F, T, F, F, F, F, T, T.