

Create a quilt square that symbolizes what you think was one of Abraham Lincoln's greatest accomplishments or one of the neatest things you learned about our 16th president this week. When we are all finished, we will tape them all together to memorialize Abraham.

