

In the center circle, write your definition of a civil right. Then in the circles surrounding your definition, write as many examples of a civil right as you can in the time allotted.

