

The Revolutionary War-The First Shot Photo Story

Directions and Rubric

On each page write the story you have just learned over the last few days about the first day of the Revolutionary War. Look at the photo on the page and make sure the story behind the photo is included on that page.

Follow the rubric below to complete your story.

	4	3	2	1
Do you know what the events were that took place that night? Include the Old North Church and the lanterns, Paul Revere's ride, and the Battle at Lexington and Concord.	You include all of the events that took place with a lot of details.	You include three of the events that took place with a lot of details.	You include two or three events with some details.	You include one event with a few details.
Do you know when the events took place when the Revolutionary War began? Include the month, days, and year.	You include the month, days, and year plus the time of day the events took place.	You include the month, days, and year.	You include the month and day, or the month and year.	You include the month, the day, or the year.
Do you know the where the events took place at the beginning of the Revolutionary War? Include Boston, Massachusetts, Lexington, Massachusetts, and Concord, Massachusetts.	You include all of the places and can write details about what happened in those places.	You include some of the places and can write a few details about what happened in those places.	You include one of the places and can write a few details about what happened in those places.	You include one of the places but don't write details about what happened in those places.
Do you know who was involved in the first battles of the Revolutionary War? Include Paul Revere, Robert Newman, Samuel Adams, John Hancock, Captain John Parker, and Captain Gage.	You can name all of the major people involved in the first battles of the Revolutionary War and represent them correctly in the story.	You can name four or five of the major people involved in the first battles of the Revolutionary War and represent them correctly in the story.	You can name two or three of the major people involved in the first battles of the Revolutionary War and represent them correctly in the story.	You can name some of the major people involved in the first battles of the Revolutionary War but you don't represent them all correctly in the story.
Do you know why the Revolutionary War began? Include being taxed without representation.	You can tell in a lot of detail why the Revolutionary War began.	You can tell in some detail why the Revolutionary War began.	You can tell in little detail why the Revolutionary War began.	You can't tell any details why the Revolutionary War began.