

Name _____

Studying Visual Sources

1. Study the painting or photo for two minutes. Form an overall impression. Look at the painting or photo again dividing it into quadrants. Study each section to see new details. Use the chart below to list the people objects and activities you see in the painting or photo.

People	Objects	Activities

2. From the things you observed name three things you can infer about this photo or painting.

3. What kind of job do you think the people in the photo have?

4. What clues are there that make you think it's the job you chose?

5. What questions does this photo/painting raise in your mind?

6. Where might you find the answers to these questions?
