

1,471 at Work On County WPA Jobs Saturday

Increase of 39 on Improvement Projects Reported; Road Work Employs Most Men.

Total number of men working on 28 WPA projects reached 1,471 in Champaign county Saturday according to payroll figures issued by the local office. This includes 70 non-relief supervisors.

This is an increase of 39 men during the last week. One project has been added since Dec. 20, the county highway improvement job which is employing 18 men.

Sidney's farm-to-market road project is still leading with a total of 196 men employed and city of Champaign's storm sewer project is third with 168 relief employables and Urbana street improvement project, second, with 172.

Other projects which are employing the bulk of WPA workers are Colfax road improvement, 123; Condit road improvement, 96; Mahomet road project, 105; Champaign county bridge improvement, 58; Thomasboro roads, 36; Saline branch project, 36; Urbana park improvement, 16; city of Champaign sewer project, 45; city of Champaign sidewalk improvement, 31; Champaign-Urbana social recreation project, 40; Champaign Boneyard improvement, 12.