

The American History Teachers' Collaborative and the CUJF Holocaust Education Committee in conjunction with the Jewish Partisan Educational Foundation present:

Movie Night: Defiance

Thursday, March 11, 2010 • 5:30—9:00 pm • Urbana Middle School

During World War II, approximately 20,000-30,000 Jews, many of whom were teenagers, escaped the Nazis to form or join organized resistance groups.

These Jews are known as the Jewish partisans, and they joined hundreds of thousands of non-Jewish partisans fighting against the enemy throughout much of Europe. Today over 10,000 people are alive because of them.

The Jewish Partisan Educational Foundation uses the motion picture Defiance starring Daniel Craig and Liev Schreiber, in conjunction with background materials to create teachable moments around the film.

Participants will receive a copy of the DVD as well as a booklet of resources and background materials.

To learn more about the partisan movement or the Jewish Partisan Educational Foundation, please go to www.jewishpartisans.org.

To register, please email your name, school, and grade level to Elizabeth Bologna at register@usd116.org by February 8, 2010. If you have any questions, please contact Katherine Barbour at kbarbour@usd116.org or Elizabeth Bologna at ebologna@usd116.org.