

Discussion Questions for Too Politically Sensitive

1. How did law enforcement fail the Rhoads family?
2. Why was the investigation “too politically sensitive?”
3. How can government silence those who expose its misconduct?
4. What connections to organized crime were discussed in this book?
5. Why do you think the outcome of the pending civil suits of Randy Steidl and Herb Whitlock are important to the state of Illinois?
6. If Governor Ryan had offered clemency to Randy Steidl, what do you think would have happened in Civil Court?
7. What are the ramifications of Garcetti v Ceballos for educators?
8. How does the author’s scope –from small town to international crime—reflect the average America environment?
9. How will you use the information in this book professionally?
10. How will you use the information in this book personally?