Urbana High School to Host 34th Annual Thanksgiving Dinner All Invited to the High School Thanksgiving Day

An Urbana High School tradition returns for its 34th consecutive year. The Urbana High School Student Senate will host the school's annual Thanksgiving Dinner at the High School Cafeteria, 1002 South Race Street, Urbana. Student volunteers will serve the dinner from 5:00 – 7:00 p.m., Thanksgiving Day.

The dinner is completely free, there is no paperwork involved, and it allows all to simply walk in the UHS cafeteria, sit down and enjoy a Thanksgiving meal. Local businesses supply the food and the high school pays for the dinner from money collected through school fundraisers. The school typically serves 200 guests, and this year the Student Senate expects more to attend.

"The entire UHS family is proud of our annual Thanksgiving Dinner where students and community members are afforded the opportunity to give special thanks. What a wonderful way for UHS students to demonstrate how much they appreciate the people that make up our community," says Urbana High School Principal Dr. Laura Taylor.

Media wishing to cover the Thanksgiving dinner at Urbana High School or media wishing to interview UHS Staff and students, please contact Dr. Taylor at 384-3524.
