Statement From Urbana School District Regarding Jon White Litigation

The following is a statement from Urbana School District #116:

“The Urbana School District #116 is aware that a complaint has been filed against it and other defendants regarding the Jon White matter. The District intends to vigorously defend this litigation and will do the same in response to any other litigation related to Jon White. The district cannot comment on pending litigation and has no further comments to make about this matter at this time.”
