Leal Elementary School Celebrates Latino Heritage Special Assembly October 15

Leal Elementary School students will celebrate Latino Heritage Month with a special assembly at the school October 15, from 10:00 – 10:45 a.m.

Latino Heritage Month is for Americans to celebrate the culture and traditions of U.S. residents who trace their roots to Spain, Mexico, and the Spanish-speaking nations of Central America, South America and the Caribbean.

During the assembly on October 15, Leal Elementary School students will perform songs, poems, and display their artwork that celebrates their Latino heritage.

Members of the media wishing to attend the second-annual Latino Heritage Month assembly should contact Leal Elementary School Principal Spencer Landsman at 384-3618.
