Urbana School District Welcomes Back Teachers Opening Inservice August 25th

Urbana School District #116 welcomes its teachers and staff back to another school year this Monday, August 25, 2008, at Urbana Middle School. The entire staff will assemble in the UMS gym for opening ceremonies. The theme of this year's Opening Inservice is "Bringing Out the Best."

The day begins with registration at 7:30 a.m. The staff will be welcomed back by Superintendent Dr. Preston Williams, Urbana Mayor Laurel Prussing, Board of Education President Mark Netter, and many others. Dr. Williams will address the employees speaking on the topic "Bringing Out the Best Is What We Do."

The keynote address will be by Dr. Crystal Kuykendall, and her theme will be "Bringing out the Best in ALL Students." Dr. Kuykendall is an author, educator, attorney, human relations expert and public speaker <http://www.crystalkuykendall.com/>.

Media wishing to cover the Opening Inservice Ceremonies should contact Mark Schultz at 384-3650.
